Sign of the Time
CICERONE

To:
Gina Kay
A very short and sweet young lady that I enjoy being around. Remember the good times we had in 3.5 in mrs. Ethel Williams class me, you, and Vickie. How
mrs. Williams used to front Charles and say that he was ugly and when Vickie and mr. morgan got in to it.
Do you Remember the boring times we had in 3.5 in mr. Cooper and mr. Kuceria class.
when you use to talk about your future husband Lorenzo. well Gina the time has come to walk that final walk. Good luck in the future with the one you love and deserve because if you there is any one who deserve the best then it is you. may God Bless you

Love
ya,
ms. Kelly Bailey

Sr. A.T. 9

To: Ms. Regina Struggs

A nice personal always enjoy the talking too. Remember all the good times we had in Mr. Cook's, letting Derrick do all the work.
Well, we've finally made it, and thank God every minute for what he's done. I don't really have too much more to say but this:
"Know matter what you do in life always have faith in yourself and God and I promise you'll reach your goal!"

"Take Care"

Sholynda Florence

Do remember that class we had a person named Mrs. Williams a little short lady she use to say to us all the time
that don't matter
and that don't matter
what people
want say about you
Mrs. Williams
Sr. 1989

Gina,

Song: "Dream On"

"School Day Memories"

As we reach out our hand
The diploma we grasp
While we think of the memories
Of the years past,
Tears fill our eyes
Because it's all gone.
We're starting a new life;
We have to move on.
We hope friends will keep in touch
As the years pass us by.
Although it hurts inside,
We'll try not to cry.
We think of kindergarten
And our first day,
Now we've reached the end-
We are going away.
How do you say goodbye
To friends who mean so much?
Will there be time
To sincerely keep in touch?
You'll always have the memories
Of your school years from day one,
Don't think of school as ending-
Think, a new life has just begun.

The Class of '88
I LOVE YOU SO MUCH I DIDN'T WANT TO LEAVE
I HAD SO MUCH LEFT THAT I WANTED TO ACHIEVE
BUT I WAS CALLED UPON SOONER THAN PLANNED
REMEMBER ME, PLEASE WHENEVER YOU CAN
BUT YOU MY FRIENDS HAVE HOPES AND DREAMS
YOU'VE ALREADY ACHIEVED ONE BY BEING A TEAM
SO I LEAVE YOU THIS THOUGHT, "THE CLASS OF 88"
HAVE LOVE IN YOUR HEARTS AND NEVER HATE
WHENEVER YOU'RE LONELY, JUST THINK OF ME
'CAUSE I'M IN HEAVEN WHERE ALL SHOULD BE
LIKE THE STAR OF DAVID, I SHINE BRIGHTLY IN THE SKY
I'M JUST SORRY I DIDN'T GET THE CHANCE TO TELL YOU ALL GOOD-BYE

You Have To Dream On . . .

David And Johnny

You've been through a lot together
Thru good times and bad
From the time you were tots
Till you both became men

You used to ride motorcycles, go-carts and such
Then along came your trucks; you fixed up a bunch
Whenever you would go to town
You'd join the "Gang"; they'd be around Cruisin' the streets till the morning light
With friends around, you'd never fight

Remember the fads that you went through Parachute pants and earrings, too!
Each one had someone else's clothes
David had your sweats, the one with the holes
Black tennis shoes were in, Guess Jeans, too
Heavy metal music just to name a few
With Dio, Ratt, and Whitesnake so loud
David would jam to that heavy metal sound

Long hair was in; you each looked good But you didn't shave like you should Sometimes you'd stay home from school
But Mom found out, she's no fool
Opposites attract, as do friends
David was stout and Johnny is thin
Johnny would dance and David would jam
They'd ride in the "Love Machine" along with Sam
With Michael, Huntbelly, and Bouska, too
Together there wasn't anything they couldn't do

We each have memories of laughter and smiles
I have memories of David as a child
One day we will all be together again
Just as it was when their friendship began

The Juniors: The "Chill Pill" Class of 1989! It seems like just yesterday you were the ones fighting your way to the top. Although you weren't real good at raising money, the prom, thanks to you, was a success. We commend you! One more year, and you will have to say good-bye to those you've spent your life with. Enjoy your last year together. The Seniors leave to you their ability to "dream on "! Good Luck Juniors.

Whenever I need a friend-you are always there. You help me with my problems, and our joys together we share. I can't imagine life without a friend like you. Once we get together, we become an indivisible two! All the fun I've shared with you can never be replaced. Together we've had many good times and conquered the problems we've had to face. So I want you to know that I am always here, if ever you need a friend to make your thoughts clear. And when I must leave you, as many good friends sometimes part, I leave you with good memories and an important place in my heart.

The Freshman: Cubs-Fish!!

Oh, how they have tried to be accepted. Thanks to you the Seniors didn't have to stand in the lunch line. You have done well. We commend you on your outstanding ability to make it through your first year in E. H. S. Now, it is your duty to show the incoming FISH the ropes. Hang in there. Two more years and you'll have made it to the top, and maybe by then you'll know the words to the school song. And last but not least, you can be the one's accepting money for the elevator tickets. SENIOR ACTIVITIES

Here we are ...

Senior Officers

The Junior class and their parents presented a very successful prom this year. From car washing to selling programs at the Moterplex, the Junior class worked very hard to raise money. To prepare for the prom is always a big task. The Juniors held such meetings as a "star cutting out party," where they cut out over 1,000 stars to be used for decorations. This was only the beginning. They also met several nights before the prom to set up decorations for the BIG event. From the Senior class of 1988, we would like to commend the Juniors for all their hard work and dedication. Thank You!!!

Seniors squeeze together for a picture.

The 1987-88 Junior Senior prom was held on April 16, 1988, at the KJT. Cars were valet parked by the Junior class fathers. Upon entering the KJT guests were escorted over a bridge decorated with balloons and ribbons, where they signed their names in the guest book. To the left was a wishing well decorated in red and black and spurting bubbles. To the right was the food table filled with various finger foods prepared by the Junior mothers. A gazebo was placed in the center of the dance floor and was decorated in blue, silver, and white. White trees with silver ribbon and mirrors surrounded the gazebo. The D.J.'s stand was decorated with blue ribbon. Stars and ribbon covered the ceiling and the tables.

The Juniors and Seniors enjoyed dancing to the music of Q102's Bo Roberts. Pictures were taken by Photography By Jack. Entertainment was provided by Doug Jones, Kevin Williams, and Kevin Pace in a BEE BOX performance. The Junior class would like to thank the mothers, fathers, teachers, and friends who helped to pull off such a successful prom. Now it's time for the Juniors to lay back and relax, because next year it's all for you!

Valedictorian
Kelly Thomas

1988 VALEDICTORY ADDRESS

Tonight, as I look out toward my fellow classmates, I am confronted with a large maroon blur. Although we are wearing these similar robes, I am comforted by the fact that we are very unique underneath. Each of us is an individual.

Individualism, however, is not just a distinct way of dressing or a certain way of doing things. It is a strong adherence to personal beliefs and values. No two persons' convictions are the same. An individual's personality and character result from personal circumstances shaped by environment and genetics. At some point, most persons ask themselves what it is they value, what it is they want and what it is they feel they should do in life. Hopefully, we will take the time to find out how we feel about these questions. We are each ultimately responsible for our own success and happiness according to how we define these abstract terms and by how we choose to seek them.

Individual fulfillment is inherent in terms of success and happiness. Such fulfillment is more than simply intellectual growth. Individual fulfillment encompasses emotional and personal growth as well. It really does not matter what we choose to do in life, as long as we are content and feel that our actions fit within a framework of moral standards, because even though individualism is positive, it can be detrimental if self-gratifying. Furthermore, it is up to us to explore our possibilities and challenge our beliefs to find out how we really feel. If that means travel and new faces, then we should go, if it is at all possible, rather than never know what could have been. We may come back to the same place or opinion, but until we have seen the other options, how can we know?

There is so much talent among us — artists, athletes, philosophers, just to name a few. Although it is often risky to stand up for our own beliefs, giving in to society's pressures could cause us to lose our individuality, and individuality is perhaps the greatest contribution we can give. We must continue asking ourselves what it is we wish to do, because only we can make the changes. And only after achieving a vigorous sense of individuality can we contribute to a larger group.

I am glad that I have had the opportunity to know many of you in my class. I respect you for your individuality, although I may not have always agreed with you. I am grateful that you have shared your ways of life and personal views with me.

In closing, I bid us all, graduates and members of the audience alike, to embark, as John Gardner wrote, on an "odyssey of the mind and spirit."

Thank you.

Salutatorian
Julia Cook

1988 SALUTATORY ADDRESS

"On behalf of the graduating class of 1988, I would like to welcome you to tonight's ceremo Administrators, teachers, parents and friends - it is through your knowledge, hard work, caring and enc agement that my fellow classmates and I are now seated here awaiting our high school diplomas. You h influenced our lives in so many ways - providing us with role models after whom we shall pattern our lives.
have helped guide us in the establishing of our own morals, standards of excellence, responsibilities, setting, and qualities of leadership and service. With these acknowledgements, my classmates and I wo welcome you to this momentous occasion and hope that you feel in your hearts the same sense of p and accomplishment as we do, for you well deserve it.

Fellow classmates, as Salutatorian, it is my privilege to have the opportunity to share some pers thoughts with you, to speak deeply from my heart to yours of some reflections about what I feel is impor in life, and to invite you to think about these thoughts in relation to your own lives. Of the many ideas t have considered, one thought kept coming to my mind - the passing of time. Just recently, I have begu realize how quickly the days go by, and how these days soon add up to weeks, months, and years, suddenly, eighteen years of my life have gone by, and I haven't even stopped to really think about th Perhaps this train of thought has been accentuated by the events of these past few weeks. Here we about to graduate, when it seems that only yesterday we were climbing the monkey bars and running t the first on the swings during recess in elementary school, coming to the Jr. High where we were first jo together as a class, having our first football game, cheering at our first pep rally, touring the High Scho an eighth grader, and even feeling excited about becoming a freshman the following year. Just a short ago we were looking for the elevator on our first day of high school, going to our prom our junior y supporting our team in Rockwall when we advanced to the regional-finals this past football season, goin the seniors activities these past few weeks of school, and, finally, we are sitting together here, in our c and gowns, anxiously waiting for our diplomas. The years have passed quickly for all of us.

It would become so easy for us to rush through our lives. I see many people who are so set on hurryin grow up, that they do not appreciate each day or realize the simple things that happen in their lives. Th was a time not too long ago, when I could not wait to be grown up like my parents. I could not wait to w makeup, go out on dates, stay up late, or get my driver's license, because with each action, I felt older more like an adult. After tonight, we all will have taken a giant step closer to being a "grown-up," but I h now decided that I do not want to rush my age or my life.

Upon making this realization for myself, I began to think of the reasons why many people end up rus their lives. Graduation marks an end and a beginning in our lives. Each of us, as we sit here, has thought what we want to do and how we want to live. We all have dreams of success, and it would be so eas wish ourselves to achieve that success too quickly. But success requires a lot of hard work, patience, whether we like it or not, time. "What is success?" I ask myself. Well, success is a Mercedes, a big ho diamond rings, a full Liz Claiborn wardrobe! . . . but are these really success, or are we led to believe an want these? As we grow older, we are beginning to become aware of what success is not, and in doing we have the capability of understanding what success is. Success cannot be measured in material va but rather in happiness obtained through personal goal achieving and in taking time to appreciate
When I stop to think about my own successes, the time and effort invested in achieving success is o more valuable and better remembered than when the goal is reached. For example, looking back at days in band and all the accomplishments we have made, I have fonder memories of the early mor marching rehearsals and the many hours in sectionals than I do of the awards won at marching cont
These memories become more meaningful because they involve the actual work and determination sp in achieving the success. All of us have memories to which this applies.

Let us take our time achieving success; take time to really live our lives. Each day that we live brings a awareness of the world around us and of ourselves. As we leave our twelve years of schooling, there is st much that we do not know, and so much that we are capable of learning. For these reasons, it i important that we slow down our lives in order to recognize these new discoveries. Who knows what hid talents lie within us, hidden interest waiting to be unleashed!

Friends, these past twelve years that we have been together have passed by so very quickly, an many whom are older than us profess, the years do not slow down from here. We have all heard our par say, "Take time to smell the roses." My message to you is do not just smell them, but bury your whole no them and breathe their luscious fragrance and revel at their beauty. Do not be satisfied with living on surface of life, but go beyond the surface and find meaning and happiness in the beauties around you. T time out in your day to marvel at the sunset, to find pictures in the clouds, to listen to nature's voices ponder the events, to be with the ones you love, to really live each day. For, only as we learn to apprec what is Real in Life can we find true happiness."

Graduation · 1988

The 1987-88 graduating class at Ennis High School was honored Friday night, June 3, in the Ennis High School Gymnasium with Commencement exercises. The graduating seniors heard the words of Valedictorian Kelly Thomas and Salutatorian Julia Cook.

The program opened with a prelude by Irving Berlin of "God Bless America" as performed by the Ennis High School Band under the direction of Band Director Larry Ward. The processional, "Pomp and Circumstance" by Edward Elgar, followed.

J. Larry Sullivan, president, Board of Education for the 1987-88 school year, presented the diplomas. The audience reserved its applause until the end as all were patient through a blackout caused by the weather.

The school song by Granger/ Banner, "Maroon and White," was performed after the tassel crossover was official, symbolizing the final act of graduation. Beethoven's "March from the Consecration of the House" was the recessional.

Masquerade Party

"Ship Wrecked On Gilligan's Island"

The Senior Dinner was held on Friday, May 27th at 7:00 p.m. in the EHS commons. Welcome was given by Steve Collins, Class President, followed by the invocation by Kerry Davis, Class Vice-President Dinner was served by the Senior Class fathers. Following the dinner of chicken fried steak, baked potato, rolls, salad, and tea, was an outstanding magical act by Jeff Davis. Leah Harrison, Class Secretary thanked the mothers and fathers for all their hard work in decorating and preparing for this special time. Benediction was given by Lane Grayson, Class Reporter. At this point, the senior began to realize how close the big day was.

Thanks Daddies!

Thanks Mommies!

Class Of '88 Senior Dinner

I get very upset when the food's late!

Please don't take that picture.

Can you tell we're excited?!

Please hurry with the food, my stomach is growling.

The 60's party was held at the American Legion Hall May 28, 1988 at 7:30 p.m. Welcome and MC was Lane Grayson, Senior Class Reporter. After that seniors dug into grilled burgers with all the trimmings, chips, dips, and cold drinks in glass bottles. Dessert was served: Coke floats, root beer floats, and a Senior cake. After eating, the games began ... The best costume contest began with all seniors modeling around the floor. Winners were David Shackelford and his bell bottoms and Katrina Stapleton with her 10 inch heels. Next it was unscramble the artists as it was done on American Bandstand. Shaking her hips the best, Dawanah Lockhart did the twist, and for the men Kevin Williams showed how a man of the 60's got "into the groove." The hoola hoop contest followed. Six finalists were chosen: Dianna Novy, Snoopy Carter, Krissy Ranton, Melissa McCarty, Wendy Morse, and last, but surely not least, Donny "roll them hips" Fuller. Doing it the best for one straight song was Krissy Ranton, Melissa McCarty, and Snoopy Carter. To add to the excitement a lip sync contest with 4 groups took over the stage. Beginning this contest were Julie Cook, Jennifer Spellman, and lead singer Nancy Cottongame, shaking their hips and moving their lips to "Be My Baby." Following the trio was a quartet effort by none other than Donny Fuller, Kelly Wolfe, Joseph Slovak, and John Travolta himself, Kevin Williams, singing "Staying Alive." A three-some, Michael Green on bass, Kevin Pace on the scratch, and Chris Hendrix, lead singer, rapped to the beat. Last, but surely not least, was Niki Thompson, Regina Carter, Sharon Hackney, Willie Hughes, Wayne Leaks and Steve Collins strutting their stuff to "The Tramp." Winners were the "Be My Baby" Gang and "The Tramp." Around 10:30 p.m. a limbo contest came center floor. After many back-breaking songs, two people hung in - Emme Dyess and Alex Rendon. Between the two, they were able to limbo around 3 feet to the ground.

It is easy to say that all the seniors enjoyed themselves, but without our parents and the class sponsors, it would have been impossible. To all the senior sponsors, moms and dads, thanks for making our senior year so much fun.

Varsity Cheerleaders

I know things aren't always sunshine and roses between us — but don't worry; everybody has their ups and downs, their happys and sads. It's dealing with the clouds and the thorns right along with the flowers and smiles that serves to strengthen our understanding of each other. Let's just make sure that we always build bridges instead of walls, with words instead of silence and with trust and care and love.

The J.V. and Freshman cheerleaders have done an excellent job promoting spirit this year. They attended Navarro College Camp this past summer and brought back many awards. Although at times it gets hard to wear a smile, these cheerleaders have put in a lot of hard work and effort to back an excellent athletic program. Spending so much time together helps to build a love for one another that can never be replaced. It is very hard to say good-bye to a year of cheerleading, but the memories that are made together are memories to be kept forever.

We are the world, we are the children . . .

We're behind our Lions!

Yes, we have no manners.

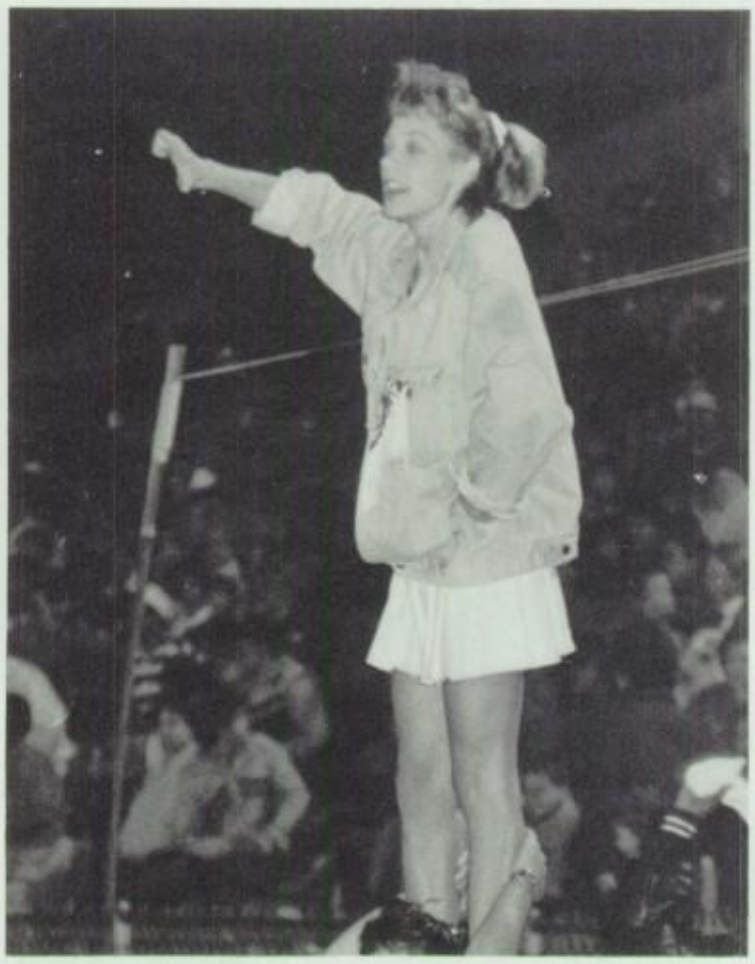
We would like to express our appreciation to a very special person who put in more that her share of time. She pushed us to perform to the best of our ability, and we want her to know that we love her very much. THANKS JANET HUFF! WE LOVE YOU! THE CHEERLEADERS OF 1987-88

Football Sweetheart



Krissy Ranton was named Football Sweetheart for 1987-1988 at the annual Sports Banquet. This honor is awarded to the girl who has demonstrated spirit and support to our teams throughout the year. Krissy has been a cheerleader throughout high school and was nominated for All-American Cheerleader at Sam Houston State Cheerleading Camp. She has also been active in various school activities and clubs.

Ennis Lions Football
1987

THE 1987 FOOTBALL SEASON WAS ONE OF THE FINEST SEASONS EXECUTED BY A LION TEAM SINCE THE STATE CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM OF 1975. WE SAW THE MIGHTY MAROON AND WHITE ENTER THE STATE PLAYOFFS FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE 1979 SEASON.

WHEN THE SEASON OPENED, THE LIONS WERE PICKED AS LOW AS FIFTH IN SOME CIRCLES AND NO HIGHER THAN THIRD IN THE ALWAYS TOUGH DISTRICT 7AAAA. BUT THE LIONS, UNDER THE DIRECTION OF NEW HEAD COACH JACK WAGGONER AND HIS FINE STAFF OF COACHES, INSTITUTED THE WISHBONE ATTACK ON THE OFFENSE; A TOUGH DEFENSIVE UNIT FUNCTIONED UNDER THE DIRECTION OF COACH KLEINHANS. THE COMBINATION WAS GOOD ENOUGH TO SEE THE LIONS FINISH WITH A FINE 7-3 REGULAR SEASON AND A SECOND PLACE FINISH IN DISTRICT, THUS MOVING INTO THE STATE PLAY-OFFS.

THE '87 SEASON STARTED OUT WITH A CLOSE DEFEAT AT THE HANDS OF STATE RANKED EVERMAN 8 TO 12. FIRST GAME JITTERS CAUSED SEVERAL COSTLY TURNOVERS, AND THE BULLDOGS TOOK ADVANTAGE OF THESE MISTAKES TO SCORE THE VICTORY.

LEARNING SOME GOOD LESSONS IN THEIR OPENING GAME PROVED TO BE OF GREAT VALUE TO THE YOUNG LIONS. THEY SCORED IMPRESSIVE CONSECUTIVE VICTORIES OVER THE ATHENS HORNETS, 43 TO 20, AND THE HILLCREST TEAM, 41 TO 6.

THE LIONS WERE RIDING HIGH IN THEIR OPENING DISTRICT GAME WITH CEDAR HILL BUT FELL PREY TO A GREAT PASSING ATTACK BY THE OPPOSITION AND LOST A HEART BREAKER BY A SCORE OF 14 TO 22.

THE LIONS REBOUNDED AND WON THE NEXT TWO DISTRICT BALL GAMES. THE FIRST DISTRICT WIN WAS OVER MIDLOTHIAN BY A SCORE OF 41 TO 0. ENNIS THEN TRAVELED TO WAXAHACHIE TO PLAY THE ARCH RIVAL INDIANS. THE LIONS ROARED TO A DECISIVE 35-0 VICTORY, COMPLETELY SHUTTING DOWN THE HIGH POWERED INDIAN OFFENSE!

ON A WET NIGHT AT LION STADIUM, THE ENNIS TEAM FACED ANOTHER STATE RANKED TEAM AND DISTRICT WINNER, WILMER-HUTCHINS. THE LIONS FOUGHT HARD, BUT ERRORS AND PENALTIES HURT THEM. THEY NEVER COULD GET THE OFFENSE IN HI GEAR AND LOST 7 TO 19.

ENNIS REBOUNDED AND HANDED THE LANCAS TIGERS A 33 TO 3 DEFEAT. THIS VICTORY SET UP BIG "SHOWDOWN" WITH STATE-RANKED CO CANA. THE TIGERS HAD VISIONS OF A BIG VICTO IN ENNIS, BUT THE LIONS DOMINATED CORSICANA A HARD PLAYED GAME. THE MAROON AND WH TEAM DEFEATED THE TIGERS BY A SCORE OF 16 7.

IN THE LAST DISTRICT GAME, THE LIONS OVER R RED OAK BY A SCORE OF 44 TO 0. WITH THIS V TORY THE LIONS MOVED INTO THE PLAY-OFFS FACE ANOTHER STATE-RANKED TEAM, THE HEND SON LIONS.

IN ONE OF THE FINEST DEFENSIVE GAMES PLAY DURING THE YEAR, THE LIONS SCORED 9 POINTS THE FOURTH QUARTER TO OVERCOME HENDERS 9-7.

WITH THEIR VICTORY OVER HENDERSON, THE LIONS TRAVELED TO MESQUITE TO FACE THEIR REGIONAL OPPONENT, THE ROCKWALL YELLOWJACKETS. ENNIS SUFFERED SIX TURNOVERS AND THE YELLOWJACKETS CAPITALIZED ON EACH LION MISTAKE. THIS 7 TO 41 DEFEAT KNOCKED THE LIONS OUT OF THE STATE PLAY-OFFS, BUT THE LIONS ENDED A FINE SEASON WITH 8 WINS AND 4 LOSSES.

THE 1987 SEASON WILL BE REMEMBERED AS A TRULY OUTSTANDING SEASON. THERE ARE MANY REASONS FOR SUCH A RECORD, BUT THREE THINGS MEANT THE MOST: FIRST, THE GREAT TEAM EFFORT PUT FORTH BY EVERY MEMBER OF THE SQUAD; SECOND, A HARD WORKING, DEDICATED COACHING STAFF; THIRD, AN UNBEATABLE SCHOOL SPIRIT, LED NOT ONLY BY THE BAND, CHEERLEADERS, AND STUDENT BODY, BUT ALSO THE FACULTY AND LOCAL LION FANS.

OFFICER (clockwise): Treasurer — David Shackleford, Vice-President — St Collins, President — Kerry Davis, Reporter — Katrina Stapleton, Secretary Leah Harrison.

The 1987-88 Student Council is one of the largest councils in several years. The purpose of the student council is to make students aware of their school government. The Council holds a monthly meeting each second Monday at 6:00 p.m. where they discuss issues that are important to the student body. With the help of sponsors Jamie Erisman and Terry Lapic, the Student Council was able to hold its largest fundraiser, the Homecoming Dance. This year's dance was one of the most successful. The group also had a Computer Dating Service at Valentine's Day for its second fundraiser. A major goal for the Student Council is to get students and clubs to work as a group for the benefit of the school. With the anticipation of the coming year, the Council hopes that more people will become aware of the duties and responsibilities of the Student Council and the way in which it works with the Student Body.

CAMERA . . .

On behalf of the Senior Class of 1988, a special thanks is extended to Barbara Webb for all the hard work and effort that she put forth in the production of the Senior Class Play. Also to Tami Jimmerson, stage manager, who did a lot of promoting, we thank you. It would take forever to include all of those who helped in the production, so to all of you . . . THANKS. And to the Senior Class of 1988, CONGRATULATIONS, YOU DID IT!!!

TAKE FIVE!

ACTION . . .

When it came time to do the senior play for the class of 1988, I chose the greatest play ever written, You Can't Take it With You by George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart. I felt, since it was my first year at Ennis High School, that I should start with the best. What I didn't know was that the best was already here. My cast couldn't have been better if I had hired pros. It is every high school director's dream to find a bumper crop of talent to work with, and that is what I found in the class of 1988.

In telling the story of the zany Sycamore family and their encounter with the Kirby's, I found a new family myself. The cast and crew became a family for the run of the play and beyond, that is rare in theatre. When Grandpa tells Mr. Kirby, "You can't take it with you," he is talking about money. What Mr. Kirby finds out when he loosens up, and what I found out when the show closed, is that you CAN take memories and friendships with you.

To the class of '88, I hope you take fond memories of your senior year with you through your life. I also hope you take its message as well. Don't ever throw away the ballet shoes, the typewriter, the xylophone, or the saxophone. That would be one of the best lessons you can take from Ennis High School.

Boys' State And Girls' State

Each year four boys and four girls are selected by the EHS faculty to attend Boys' State and Girls' State in June. The names of the boy and girl with the most votes are submitted to the American Legion Auxiliary. When the first name is approved, the person receiving the second highest number of points is submitted. This year we were able to send all four boys-Brad Barton, Rusty Grayson, Damon Betik, and Peter Byrd, but only three of the girls-Christi Vavra, Amy Hackney, and Christi Evans. The boys will spend seven days in Austin, and the girls stay ten days in Seguin where they learn more about the government. Towns and counties are set up, and students run for political office. Parliamentary Procedure is also studied. The purpose of Boys' and Girls' State is to better educate the leaders of tomorrow about our governmental system.

Brad Barton, Rusty Grayson, Damon Betik, and Peter Byrd; Christi Vavra, Amy Hackney, Christi Evans, and Julie Wilson-alternate.

Homecoming 1987

The royal court included Craig Dlabaj, Laura Lipsey, Chris Garrett, Sara Eisenwine, Billy McDade, Tambra Draper, Trina Hollingsworth, John Andrews, Brandi Wilson, Scott Lott, Kristie Kyser, and Keith Howard.

On a wet Friday evening in October, a large crowd was present to witness the crowning of the 1987 Homecoming Queen, Kerry Davis. As rain poured down on the field of Lion Stadium, the royal court was introduced while the Ennis Band played "Yesterday" during halftime of the Ennis vs. Wilmer-Hutchins game. The Lion team played a tough game, but fell short to the Eagles in the end with a score of 7-19. This was the 30th annual Homecoming for EHS.

On the Saturday night following the game, the Homecoming Dance was held in the EHS Commons. The Student Council worked very hard to decorate in accordance with the theme of the dance, "The Time Is Now." Music was provided by Dr. Tunes, and everyone had a blast.

Queen Nominees and their escorts were: Jason Mahone, Sharon Hackney, Michael Docteur, Lisa Svehlak, Kerry Davis, Brett Shirley, Kathy Griffith, and Scott Jurica.

The 1987-88 school year has come to an end. This year has been full of good times (for school). The Cicerone Staff would like to thank the faculty, administrators, and students for giving us a great year to work with. We would like to wish all of the seniors the very best in their future endeavors. As for the rest of the students, we would like to wish you the best as you finish your years at Ennis High School.

Many wonderful, crazy memories from the 1987-88 school year came to mind as I proofread the last few pages of this year's CICERONE.

Most of the seniors will agree that this year has been the highlight of their school days. Who could forget having fun at homecoming, at the prom, being crazy at lunch (while eating gourmet entrees from the lunchroom), roaming the halls without a pass, learning how to be a speed writer in government, and trying to deal with Mr. Cooper's sense of humor? And of course, we had some good times when we were goofing off and looking for a party-good times and good friends go together! In spite of all the good times from this year, there are some sad memories. We, as seniors, will these days as we go our separate ways and leave our friends behind. And we will always have the memory of the tragic loss of a special friend, David Mach.

We, the annual staff, hope you will cherish the special memories that we have captured in this year's CICERONE. We would like to thank Jack Odiorne, the Ennis Daily News, and Ivan Goodwin for photographs. I would also like to extend special thanks to the following people for contributing artwork to this yearbook: Leah Harrison, for the cover; Jeannie Lucky, for the title page and table of contents; and Denice Davis for the division pages.

Regina,
A very Nice + crazy person, whom

I, still in my heart, knew you would
